Formation, operations and functions of the Virginia General Jural Assembly By-laws of the sovereign members of Virginia, a Free and Independent state

Whereas, the assembly of We THE People being one of the principles most respected and powerful civil rights of the American People, and

Whereas, the concept of an assembly dates back to the early colonies and was included in the constitutions of the free republics of the United States of America, cir. 1787, as a means for the people to rein-in an elected government acting outside the limits of delegated power, and

Whereas, when a government appears to be committing criminal and un-Constitutional acts, it can hardly be relied upon to bring charges and indictments against itself.

Therefore, We THE People inhabiting the land of Virginia, a Free and Independent state, free men and women convened under God, having been granted by the Creator dominion over all the earth, to protect and restore the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity, do hereby invoke our sacred right to peacefully assemble, as memorialized in The unanimous Declaration of Independence of the thirteen united States of America, cir. 1776, The Articles of Confederation, cir. 1781, and the Constitution of Virginia, cir. [year*], and do hereby establish this Virginia General Jural Assembly of the sovereign people of Virginia, a Free and Independent nation=state.

This Virginia General Jural Assembly, being formed and existing by right according to common law and lawfully assembled on the free dry land of Virginia, a Free and Independent state, is not a part of the de facto incorporated bodies such as Political Action Committees (PACs) and any and all political parties. It functions as an entirely separate and independent body, void of affiliation with any and all partisan connections according to rights and powers granted by the Creator and vested in the people by the Bill of Rights that secure these rights to address Constitutional usurpations for the United States of America, cir. 1787 as amended in 1791.

This Assembly is composed of free men and women who have bound themselves by a Jural Covenant of Office Oath to review, deliberate and "Notice" the unlawful acts and actions of public office holders. These Assembly members have sworn or affirmed to support, preserve, defend and protect the 'Constitution of the United States of America' (circa 1787) and the Bill of Rights by autographing under oath or affirmation the 'Jural Covenant of Office.' Virginia General Jural Assembly standing as guardians of Virginia, a Free and Independent state, one of the freerepublics in perpetual union with the Articles of Confederation in force after ratification by Maryland, 1 March 1781.

In addition, all Virginia General Jural Assembly members have autographed under oath or affirmation the 'Jural Covenant of Office,' knowing full well that they are subject to serve as De Jure Grand Jury members and are selected by random draw and will serve a one year term.

The expressed meaning of the word "De Jure" used herein is "existing by right or according to law."

Requirements and Qualifications for Virginia General Jural Assembly Membership:

10. This assembly reserves the right to refuse membership to any interested person on a case-by-case basis, and for any reason not mentioned above.

Duties, Powers, and Responsibilities:

The Virginia General Jural Assembly reviews and evaluates procedures, methods and systems used by all governmental agencies to determine whether agency operations remain within lawful limitations of constitutional authority, and may also inquire into any aspect of special legislative districts and joint power agencies.

The jurisdiction of Virginia General Jural Assembly extends to the operations of any federal agency presuming to have authority to operate within the geographic boundaries of Virginia, a free and independent state, which may affect or infringe the unalienable rights of the sovereign people of Virginia.

The Virginia General Jural Assembly functions lawfully only as a body. No one individual assembly member acting alone has any power or authority. No one county has the authority or power to implement change or conditions to these by-laws on its own.

Meetings of this Virginia General Jural Assembly are private meetings. Non-members must/shall be sponsored by a member in good standing to attend assembly meetings. "Good Standing" means the member has all their documents up to date and on file with the recording secretary and is not under suspension or indictment for any cause or infraction.

It is required that all matters placed before this Virginia General Jural Assembly, and votes taken, must be kept as a continual record in the minutes of all the meetings, including regularly scheduled and special emergency meetings.

All matters voted on by Virginia General Jural Assembly shall be decided by a simple majority of 50%, plus 1, of the quorum that is present. All members in good standing attending assembly meetings shall constitute a quorum. It is not required that a majority of all documented members be present at each meeting in order to constitute a quorum. All matters voted on shall be final in all matters.

The Virginia General Jural Assembly takes action by peaceful means in redressing all matters under review pertaining to all government agencies. The end result of inquiries into civil matters may be released to the public in the form of a final report, but only upon written request.

The Virginia General Jural Assembly Serves These Primary Functions:

1. To examine all aspects of government operations by initiating its own investigations; placing their findings before a "Board of Review" for disposition;
2. To resolve disputes between governmental agencies and the people living and working within the geographic boundaries of Virginia, a free and independent state;
3. To conduct investigations, and when the evidence is sufficient, to issue presentments to the "Board of Review" to initiate appropriate action by enforcement agencies responsible for prosecution;
4. To oversee all government agencies and the office holders to ensure compliance with Constitutions, Lawfull statutes, Ordinances, Regulations, Codes etc., and to review and determine the lawfulness of all the listed directives;
5. To oversee all County Settlement Assemblies; and to ensure that their duties, qualifications, purpose and scope, conform to the Virginia General Jural Assembly as set forth herein, except limited to the respective county venue. Administrative oversight is placed under the Virginia General Jural Assembly to maintain concurrence and peaceful interactions and harmony for all of We THE People on the free dry land of Virginia, a free and independent state;
6. Establish a three (3) member "Board of Review" for infractions of these by-laws by any member's failure to live up to this Operation and Functions by-laws and expectations of the Virginia General Jural Assembly;
